Men's Basketball (1-0, 0-0 MAC)
Head Coach: Rob Murphy
- Eastern Michigan opened the 2013-14 season with an exhibition against Marygrove College Monday, Nov. 4. The Eagles took down the Mustangs, 101-38. The Green and White shot 51.3 percent from the floor and 73.7 percent from the charity stripe through the contest, as they were led by senior Glenn Bryant on the offensive front. He notched 16 points on 8-of-14 shooting. Daylen Harrison had 15 points on the night, while Mike Talley dropped in 11 points. Junior Karrington Ward led EMU under the basket pulling down 10 rebounds with seven on the defensive side of the ball. The Eagles totaled 10 blocks on the night, which was just two shy of the Mustangs' field goal total. Bryant rejected four shots, while Da'Shonte Riley turned away three and Ward had two blocks of his own.
- Eastern opened the regular season Friday, Nov. 8, with a Noon matchup against Albion College. The Eagles knocked off the Britons, 77-45, on Education Day at the Convocation Center. Eastern had four Eagles in double digit scoring, led by Karrington Ward with 17 points in the afternoon contest. Ray Lee and Glenn Bryant had 13 and 12 points, respectively, while Mike Talley contributed 10. Talley, Darell Combs and Da'Shonte Riley dished out four assists in the win. Riley's four dimes were a career-high. Defensively, Riley tied his career-high in blocks, rejecting seven of the Britons' shots and led the team in steals with three. He also tied for a team-high in rebounds with Talley, pulling down five. The entire EMU squad put in a solid effort under the glass, as they out-rebounded Albion 41 to 33.
- The Eagles have a pair of games coming up this week. The Green and White will open with a 7 p.m. tilt against Concordia University Tuesday, Nov. 12, at home. Following EMU’s game with Concordia, the Eagles will hit the hardwood against Robert Morris University Thursday, Nov. 14, for a 7:30 p.m. matchup with the Colonials. Prior to the game with RMU, the Convocation Center will serve as the venue for EMU’s Alumni Game.

Women’s Basketball (1-0, 0-0 MAC)
Head Coach: Tory Verdi
- Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team earned an 85-76 victory over Wayne State University in its only exhibition contest of the 2013-14 campaign Tuesday, Nov. 5, at the Convocation Center. Freshman Cha Sweeney led the EMU offense as she tallied 20 points in her first contest for the Eagles, while Janay Morton notched 14 and Desyree Thomas netted 13 points. Freshman Haley Moore and Olivia Fouty each had double-digit points as Moore had 12 and Fouty had 11. The Eagles defensive effort was led by Morton, Sweeney and Jamaica Bucknor who each tallied three steals on the night, while Natachia Watkins pulled down a team-high 10 rebounds.
- EMU came out strong in the 2013-14 season opener, claiming a 101-52 victory over the Madonna Crusaders. With the win, the Eagles improves to 1-0, while Madonna falls to to 1-2. The 49-point margin of victory ties for the ninth-largest margin of victory inside the Convocation Center, while the 101-point finish ranks as fifth-most points scored inside Eastern's home court.
- Sweeney was an offensive sparkplug for the Eagles, going 10-for-17 from the field for a total of 25 points, an average of one point for every minute she was on the court. Fouty notched the ninth double-double of her career, posting 10 points and pulling down 11 rebounds, and also tied for a team-high three steals with Desyree Thomas, who led the squad in assists with eight. Sara Stone grabbed 12 shots off the glass for the Green and White.
- As a team, EMU shot 41-of-87 from the floor for a .471 clip, including 11-of-25 from beyond the arc. Eastern's bench out-scored the bench of the Crusaders, 42-23. The Green and White forced 19 turnovers that converted into 30 points. Head Coach Tory Verdi's squad pushed the tempo all afternoon, tallying 38 fastbreak points.
- The Eagles will host their next game, Nov. 13 versus Butler University. The game is scheduled for a 7 p.m. tipoff inside the Convocation Center.
Men’s Cross Country

Football (2-8, 1-5 MAC)
Interim Head Coach: Stan Parrish

- The Eastern Michigan University football team secured its second victory of the 2013 campaign in an overtime thriller against Mid-American Conference foe Western Michigan University, 35-32. One day after former EMU Head Football Coach Ron English was relieved of his duties, Interim Head Coach Stan Parrish led the Green and White to its first MAC win of this season.

- The victory was led by the ground attack, as the Eagles rushed an EMU record-breaking 44 carries for 264 yards, which ranks as the third-highest rushing yardage in Green and White laurels. Two players surpassed the century mark, as junior running back Ryan Brumfield ran career-high 148 yards on 15 carries to lead the Eagles, nearly doubling his previous mark of 79 rushing yards. Brumfield also ran in another career-high in touchdowns, leading the squad with two. Junior running back Bronson Hill was the second player to run over 100 yards, as his 108 yards on 23 carries also resulted in a touchdown.

- Brogan Roback found Dustin Creel on the right sideline, who ran through the clear lane to the end zone. In need of a two-point conversion, the ball was handed off to Brumfield, who found Roback on the right with an uncontested route across the line ahead of him. The Eagles were able to knot the score, 29-29, and force the overtime period.

- After winning the toss prior to overtime, the Eagles elected to play defense first. EMU held the Broncos to another Haldeman field goal before the Green and White took over on the offensive side of the ball.

- The Eagles started their offensive run in overtime with a pass from Roback to Russell for a first-down off a 10-yard lob. Brumfield carried the ball an additional 10 yards to nab a first-and-goal from the five yard line. Brumfield finished the game with a five yard jaunt into the endzone, putting the Green and White up for the win with a final tally of 35-32.

- Eastern runs into its final bye week before taking on Bowling Green State University at Rynearson Stadium. The game with the Falcons will serve as EMU’s Senior Day. The Eagles’ final home game is scheduled for 1 p.m. in Ypsilanti.

Men’s Golf

Women's Soccer (12-7-2, 8-2-1 MAC)
Head Coach: Scott Hall
- The EMU soccer swept MAC Player of the Week honors for the period ending, Nov. 3, as Angela Vultaggio earned MAC Offensive Player of the Week and Marisa Kozikowski was named MAC Defensive Player of the Week. Both Eagles proved to be key factors in EMU’s 2-1 victory over Western Michigan, Oct. 31, and a MAC Tournament quarterfinal win, 3-0, over Ohio, Nov. 3. The victory at WMU gave the Eastern its first MAC regular season title since 2003.
- The Eagles collected numerous awards from the Mid-American Conference. Along with a MAC Regular Season Championship Trophy and a MAC West Division Trophy, Angela Vultaggio was named MAC Offensive Player of the Year while Emily Dzik earned MAC Co-Defensive Player of the Year accolades. EMU Head Coach Scott Hall was selected as MAC Coach of the Year by his peers.
- Six Eagles earned All-MAC honors. Seniors Cara Cutaia and Stephanie Clarke along with juniors Angela Vultaggio and Emily Dzik earned All-MAC First Team accolades. Junior Marisa Kozikowski was named All-MAC Second Team while Madison Hirsch was named to the MAC’s All-Freshman Team.
- Eastern dropped a heartbreaking 1-0 MAC Tournament semifinal contest to Western Michigan Friday afternoon, Nov. 8, at Scicluna Field. The loss ends the Eagles’ season with a record of 12-7-2, including 8-2-1 in MAC play.

Men’s Swimming (1-1, 0-0 MAC)
Head Coach: Peter Linn
- Eastern Michigan University men's swimming and diving team defeated in-state rival Oakland University in a dual meet, 193-103, on Saturday, Nov. 9 at Jones Natatorium. The squad had a first-place swimmer in 13-of-16 events, conceding victories to Oakland in only the 100, 500 and 1000 freestyles.
- the 200 medley relay team of freshmen Cole Bateman and Kyle Aerne, sophomore Krzysztof Gilski and senior Dexter Foos took the first event of the afternoon with a 1:32.98 mark.
- The duo of junior Mike Fisher and Aerne came out strong in the breaststroke races, as Fisher won both the 100 and 200, while Aerne grabbed a second and third-place finish in the respective events. Sophomore Andrew Henry claimed a pair of individual first-place finishes, as he touched in at 1:53.55 in the 200 individual medley and 1:38.88 in the 200 free. Moore followed closely behind in the 200 free for a second-place performance.
- Rookie diver Alex Chan had an impressive showing for the Green and White, headlining both the 1- and 3-meter springboard competitions.
- The Eagles will take a substantial break before hitting the water again. On December 6-7, they will host the EMU Classic in Jones Natatorium to wrap up the 2013 calendar year.

Women's Swimming (3-2, 2-0 MAC)
Head Coach: Peter Linn
- Eastern Michigan University's women's swimming and diving team secured its third victory in-a-row with a win over in-state rival Oakland University, Nov. 9.
- The first victory of the afternoon came with a 1-2-3 sweep in the 200 free. Freshman Grace Van Allen claimed the top spot with a time of 1:52.63, while junior Jessie Godlewski led a trio of Eagles in the 200 fly, and Jackie Swartz raced to a first-place finish in the 100 fly with a 56.38.
- Junior Monica Dorszewski won both breaststroke events, touching in at 1:03.91 and 2:18.93 in the 100 and 200 breast, respectively.
• Redshirt-senior Danielle Hulvey paced the diving team with winning performances on the 1- and 3-meter springboards, scoring over 300 points in both.
• The squad will travel to Toledo, Ohio to take on the Rockets of the University of Toledo, Saturday, Nov. 16 at 1 p.m. to close out the first half of Mid-American Conference action for the season.

Women’s Tennis (0-0, 0-0 MAC)
• The Eagles will take the next two months off before hitting the courts again. The Green and White will head to Detroit, Mich., Jan. 17, 2014, to take on the University of Detroit in its next match of the 2013-14 year. The dual match with the Titans is scheduled to begin at 7 p.m.

Women’s Volleyball (14-15, 4-10 MAC)
Head Coach: Kim Berrington
• Eastern fell to Western Michigan (Nov. 8) and Northern Illinois (Nov. 9) each in four sets.
• Jill Briner led the offense, totaling 81 assists and 14 kills. The junior posted 10.12 assists per set, 1.75 kills and 3.12 digs in the seven sets played by EMU.
• Corynne Smith and Stacey Perinar led the Green and White in digs with 46 on the weekend, an average of 5.75 per frame.
• Erin Short totaled 26 kills, while Megan Crawshaw and Stacey Perinar each added 24.
• Paige Roback and Erin Short each were honored following Saturday’s Senior Night match. Both Roback and Short were four-year starters for the EMU volleyball team.
• Eastern is off until Thursday, Nov. 14, when it hits the road for the final weekend of the regular season. The Eagles will square off with Central Michigan on Thursday at 7 p.m. before heading to Kent, Ohio for the regular season finale Saturday, Nov. 16. EMU’s match with the Golden Flashes is scheduled for 7 p.m.

Wrestling (0-0, 0-0 MAC)
Head Coach: Derek DelPorto
• Eastern Michigan University wrestling squad completed its first match of the 2013-14 season, as redshirt-senior Phillip Joseph led the Eagles with a third-place finish in the 184 lb. weight class.
• Representing EMU at the 184 lb. weight class, Joseph had a bye in round one before clinching two victories by decision. The redshirt-senior notched a 7-2 decision in the quarterfinals over CMU's Craig Kelliher before falling in the semifinals to Ohio State's Kenny Courts by decision. Phillips went on to clinch a third-place finish in his first match of the season for EMU.
• The freshman/sophomore 165 weight class would turn into a battle between Devan Marry and Dean Vettese as they each earned a bye in the first round before winning three-straight to meet in the quarterfinals as unattached wrestlers. Vettese clinched a 10-1 major decision over his teammate and went on to win the 165 freshman/sophomore weight class, taking a 6-2 decision over Findlay's Brian Metz in the finals.
• The Eagles will be back in action on Saturday, Nov. 16 when they return to Ypsilanti to host the EMU Duals and the EMU Open. The matches will run simultaneously as the EMU Duals will be conducted on mats 1-7 and the EMU Open will be on mats 8-14. The match is slated to start at 10 a.m. at Bowen Field House.
