Men’s Basketball (3-0, 0-0 MAC)
Head Coach: Rob Murphy

- EMU came out victorious in the second contest of the 2013-14 campaign in a cross-county matchup against Concordia University, Nov. 12. The 95-50 win elevates the Eagles to a 2-0 record. It also marks the first time the Eagles have scored over 90 points since a matchup against Marygrove College, Nov. 14, 2008, in a 118-48 win for Eastern. The Eagles were led by junior Karrington Ward who posted 17 points, tying his career-high, after shooting 5-of-10 from the field and five-of-six from the free throw line. He also pulled down a team and career-high seven rebounds and tied with four other Eagles for the team-high in steals, with two. Redshirt-senior Glenn Bryant tallied 14 points and two steals in the win, while Darell Combs and Ray Lee netted 12 apiece.

- EMU won its matchup against Robert Morris University, Nov. 14. The Green and White went from trailing throughout the majority of the first half to combining in a stellar defensive and offensive effort to top the Colonials, 69-64. Eastern was led offensively by redshirt-freshman Ray Lee who put up a career-high 21 points and four steals. Karrington Ward recorded the first double-double of his EMU career, as he posted 18 points and pulled down 12 rebounds, both career-highs for the junior transfer, it was also the first double-double by an Eagle since Da'Shonte Riley scored 13 points and pulled down 11 rebounds against Northern Illinois University, March 11, 2013.

- The Eagles will remain in the Convocation Center for their next two contests. EMU will play host to Cleveland State, Monday, Nov. 18, and Texas-Arlington Saturday, Nov. 23. Both contests are slated for a 7 p.m. tip-off and are a part of the 2013 Keightley Classic.

Women’s Basketball (3-0, 0-0 MAC)
Head Coach: Tory Verdi

- EMU team kept an unblemished record as the Eagles defeated Butler in thrilling fashion with an 81-76 overtime victory at the Convocation Center Wednesday night, Nov. 13. The Green and White were led by freshman Janay Morton who netted a career-high 23 points, while Olivia Fouty tied a career-best with 20 points and pulled down 10 rebounds for her second double-double in as many games. Desyree Thomas had 12 points on the night, while Jamaica Bucknor contributed nine points and six rebounds for the EMU offense.

- EMU improved to a perfect 3-0 on the season as it defeated Cleveland State in its first road contest of the 2013-14 campaign. The Eagles took an 84-70 victory, improving to 3-0 on the season. Two Ohio natives led the Eagles as redshirt-junior Olivia Fouty tallied 19 points and freshman Cha Sweeney 17 to the EMU effort. Freshman Phillis Webb contributed 10 points on the day, while Natchia Watkins and Jamaica Bucknor each added nine points and a team-high eight rebounds. The Eagles used a season-high 50.8 shooting percentage and a 77.3 free throw percentage to secure its third victory of the season, going 31-61 from the floor, while holding CSU to a 35.9 field goal percentage and a 31.3 three point percentage. Eastern closed the contest scoring 26 points off of 21 turnovers, but was unable to grab a steal in the second half of play.

- The Eagles will take a 13-day break before heading back to the hardwood to take on Marygrove College, Saturday, Nov. 30. Tip off at the Convocation Center is scheduled for 2 p.m.
