Men’s Basketball (0-0, 0-0 MAC)
Head Coach: Rob Murphy
- After making it to the quarterfinal round of the 2013 FirstEnergy Mid-American Conference Men's Basketball Tournament in March, the Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team will begin Head Coach Rob Murphy's third season at the helm Monday, Nov. 4, with an exhibition contest against Marygrove College. The exhibition matchup with the Mustangs is scheduled for 7 p.m. at the Convocation Center. Admission is free for the exhibition matchup.
- EMU was picked to finish third in the West Division in the 2013-14 Mid-American Conference preseason poll by the MAC News Media Panel...Along with the preseason poll, EMU senior Glenn Bryant was named to the 2013-14 West Division Preseason All-MAC Team.

Women’s Basketball (0-0, 0-0 MAC)
Head Coach: Tory Verdi
- Before the regular season tips-off in just five days, the Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team is set for exhibition action Tuesday, Nov. 5, at the Convocation Center. In the team's only exhibition contest, the Eagles battle Wayne State University at 7 p.m. Admission is free and open to the public.
- EMU was picked to finish fourth in the West Division according to the 2013-14 Mid-American Conference Preseason poll as voted on by the league's head coaches and select members of the media.
- The team continues to be a proud supporter of the Ypsilanti community and the educational services provided in the area. On Tuesday, Oct. 29, the squad visited the children at the Autism Collaborative Center (AAC) for a night of “free play” to help the students play sports, climb on the jungle gym, and play organized children's games.

Men’s Cross Country
Head Coach: John Goodridge
- The men’s cross country team picked up its fourth consecutive MAC Championship by a 25 point margin in Bowling Green Ohio.
- The win marks the program’s 18th MAC Championship.
- Senior Grezgorz Kalinowski paced EMU has he picked up a third-place finish and MAC First Team honors, while senior Harry Dixon grabbed MAC First Team honors with a fifth-place overall finish.
- Warren Witchell and Willy Fink each nabbed second team honors as they crossed the line in the top-20 of the MAC Championships.
- The Eagles will compete in the NCAA Great Lake Regional on Friday, Nov. 15, in Madison Wisc. The meet is slated to start at noon.

Women’s Cross Country
Head Coach: Sue Parks
- The women’s cross country team earned a fourth-place finish at the 2013 MAC Championships in Bowling Green, Ohio. The Eagles finished the day with 111 points, while first-place Miami had 45.
- Victoria Voronko led the Green and White as she earned First Team MAC honors and a second-place overall finish, while senior Kayla Pfund and Anna Aldrich finished in the top-20 for the Eagles.
- Eastern will take the next two weeks off before competing in the NCAA Great Lakes Regional Championships, Friday, Nov. 15, in Madison, Wisc.
Football (1-8, 0-5 MAC)
Head Coach: Ron English

- The Eagles suffered a 55-16 setback to Toledo Saturday night in the Glass City.
- Sophomore Dustin Creel has a career day as he had six catches for a115 yards, which marked the first time since 2012 an Eastern receiver reached the century mark. The last to do so was Garrett Hoskins gained 158 receiving yards against Army, Oct. 20, 2012.
- Brogan Roback, who came in off the bench for the Eagles, threw for 209 yards and two touchdowns on 11-for-22 passing.
- Ryan Brumfield, who earned his first career start for the Green and White, carried the ball 17 times for 67 yards in Saturday nights game
- With the loss EMU falls to 1-8 overall on the season and 0-5 in the MAC, while Toledo improves to 6-3 overall and 4-1 in conference play.
- The Eagles will return to Ypsilanti to face in-state rival Western Michigan, Nov. 9. This will be the first of two games the Green and White will play in hopes of keeping the Michigan MAC Trophy for the third consecutive year. The Eagles retained the trophy after winning it in the 2011 campaign.

Men’s Golf
Head Coach: Bruce Cunningham

- The spring campaign will kick off in February when the team head to Dade City, Fla. to compete in the Mid-American Conference Match Play Tournament, Feb. 10-11.

Women’s Golf
Head Coach: Sandy Wagner

- The Eagles finished their fall schedule at the Palmetto Intercollegiate, Monday, Oct. 27. The Green and White picked up a 15th-place finish to close out the season.
- Freshman Kelsey Murphy led Eastern tying for 40th overall, while Karyn Lee Ping and Lois Schoof followed closely behind with a 47th-place and 63rd-place finish, respectively.
- The event wraps up the fall season for the Green and White, who now will focus on individual performances over the winter in preparation for the spring season, which begins Feb. 17-18 in New Braunfels, Texas, with the Jim West Challenge.

Women’s Rowing
Head Coach: Brad Holdren

- The Eagles competed in their final regatta of the fall season in Chattanooga, Tenn. at the Head of the Hooch.
- The Head of the Hooch is one of the largest races in the country, drawing 2,045 boats from 188 crews and four countries this season, including No. 19 Oklahoma. The Green and White will enter a season-high 14 boats in the regatta with junior Tijana Milovanovic and Lillian Britain-Auseth competing in a team-high four events. In all the Eagles will have 28 student-athletes competing in the two-day event with 14 racing in three regattas, nine racing in two regattas and three racing in one event.
- Eastern Michigan University rowing team finished its final regatta of the 2013 fall season with a program-best top-10 finish in the novice 8+ Sunday, Nov. 3.
- The Eagles captured their second medal ever at the Head of the Hooch, Saturday, Nov. 2 when the lightweight women’s four team clinched a third-place finish and a bronze medal, crossing the line at 19:48.90.
- Eastern Michigan will open up its spring season Saturday, Feb. 22 when it travels to Clemson, S.C. for the Clemson Scrimmage.
Women’s Soccer (12-6-2, 8-2-1 MAC)
Head Coach: Scott Hall
- The EMU soccer team downed Western Michigan, 2-1, on Halloween to claim the outright MAC regular season championship. The conference title is the third in the history of the program and the first since 2003. Trailing 1-0 at the half, the Eagles scored two second half goals to sneak by WMU on a rainy Thursday afternoon. Senior Cara Cutaia found Angela Vultaggio for the game-tying goal before scoring a goal of her own just four minutes later for the game-winner.
- On the same day the EMU captured its first Mid-American Conference regular season championship since 2003, Oct. 31, two Eagles were recognized for their success on the pitch and in the classroom. Senior midfielder Stephanie Clarke was named to the 2013-14 Capital One Academic All-District Five First Team, while junior defender Emily Dzik earned Capital One Academic All-District Five Second Team honors as the teams were selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). District Five in Division I is the geographical region of Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Ohio from which 25 student-athletes comprise the two academic teams.
- Eastern Michigan won its MAC Tournament quarterfinal contest Sunday, Nov. 3, shutting out the Ohio University Bobcats, 3-0. Stephanie Clarke scored two goals while Angela Vultaggio added a goal and an assist. Marisa Kozikowski added two assists and Megan McCabe made six saves for her fourth individual shutout of the season.
- With the quarterfinal victory, the top-seeded Eagles (12-6-2, 8-2-1 MAC) will now host the remainder of the 2013 MAC Women’s Soccer Tournament with semifinals taking place, Nov. 8, and the championship game set for Nov. 10 at Scicluna Field. EMU will face the No. 4 seed Western Michigan University Broncos Friday, Nov.8, in one semifinal, while No. 2 Miami University will play No. 6 seed Ball State University in the other contest.

Men’s Swimming (0-1, 0-0 MAC)
Head Coach: Peter Linn
- EMU will be back in action on Saturday, Nov. 9 when they compete in its first home dual of the season against Oakland University...The meet is set to start at 1 p.m. at Jones Natatorium.

Women’s Swimming (2-2, 2-0 MAC)
Head Coach: Peter Linn
- The Eagles extended its conference-winning streak to seven as EMU defeated Akron, 169-125, in Saturday’s dual. Eastern improves to 2-2 overall and 2-0 in the MAC.
- The Green and White fell in only five of the 16 events in the met as sophomore Audra Butch led the squad in both the 1,000 free.
- Becca Detro took home a first-place finish in both the 100 and 200 free, while Sarah Ghaffari earned a first-place finish in the 200 back.
- Jessie Godlewski continued to show her winning way as she clinched the top-finish in the 500 free and both the 100 and 200 butterfly.
- Danielle Hulvey lead the Eagles in diving as she earned 301.5 points on the 1-meter springboard, while Karly Taylor led the team on the 30meter springboard, notching 255.90 points.
- When the Eagles had reached the last five swimming events of the meet, they had secured their victory for the afternoon and swam the majority of their athletes as exhibition swims, including an exclusively exhibition 400-yard Freestyle Relay showing. With the help of strong performances across the board, the Green and White was able to improve its all-time record against Akron to a flawless 13-0.
- The squad will host another meet Saturday, Nov. 9, against in-state rival Oakland University. The meet will be held in conjunction with the men's team and will begin at 1 p.m. in Jones Natatorium.
Women’s Tennis (0-0, 0-0 MAC)
Head Coach: Ryan Ray
- The Eagles will take the next two months off before hitting the courts again. The Green and White will head to Detroit, Mich., Jan. 17, 2014, to take on the University of Detroit in its next match of the 2013-14 year. The dual match with the Titans is scheduled to begin at 7 p.m.

Women’s Volleyball (14-11, 4-6 MAC)
Head Coach: Kim Berrington
- Eastern fell to Toledo in four sets (Nov. 1) and Ball State in three (Nov. 2).
- Jill Briner led the offense, totaling 65 assists and 10 kills. The junior posted 9.29 assists per set, 1.43 kills and 5.57 digs in the seven sets played by EMU.
- Corynne Smith led the Green and White in digs with 46 on the weekend, an average of 6.57 per frame.
- Stacey Perinar was the Eagles leader in kills, with 17, posting 2.43 per frame.
- Eastern is off until next Friday, Nov. 8, when it hosts its final two regular season contests at the Convocation Center. The Eagles host Western Michigan University Friday night at 7 p.m., before Northern Illinois University comes to town Saturday, Nov. 9, for EMU’s Senior Day match with the Huskies at 7 p.m.

General Department News
- EMU will start providing a shuttle service from EMU's main campus to the Convocation Center for all home men's and women's basketball games...All shuttle pickup and drop-off locations will be within walking distance of all on-campus buildings...The shuttles will start their first pickup an hour before all scheduled game times and will run until roughly 40 minutes after tip-off.
- The E-Club Alumni Chapter, a group of former EMU varsity athletic letterwinners, has announced the addition of seven new members into the E-Club Athletic Hall of Fame....The Class of 2013 will be honored at the Hall of Fame ceremony Saturday, Feb. 15, 2014, in the EMU Student Center on campus...The Class of 2013 includes: Dennis Betts (men's swimming), Earl Boykins (men's basketball), JoyAnn Clarke (women's track and field), Wondella Devers (women's basketball), Derrick Dial (men's basketball), Eugene Smith (administrator) and Donald Stewart (men's basketball and football)...This year's class will mark the 38th anniversary of the E-Club Athletic Hall of Fame....The ceremony will begin at 10 a.m. followed immediately by a buffet luncheon...The Class of 2013 will then be recognized during the EMU basketball doubleheader at the Convocation Center at 2 p.m. The men's team tangles with the University of Toledo followed by the women's squad hosting Bowling Green State University...Tickets for the Hall of Fame ceremony and luncheon, which also includes tickets for the men's and women's basketball game at the Convocation Center that same day, are $45 each and can be purchased by calling the EMU Office for Alumni Relations at 734.487.0250.
- Join us for the Eagle Nation Insider Coach’s Show on WTKA (1050 AM) every Monday night throughout the football season at Red Rock Downtown Barbecue located at 207 West Michigan Ave. in Ypsilanti...The broadcast runs from 6 p.m. until 7 p.m. and fans are encouraged to attend...As added incentive, Red Rock will also be offering half-off appetizers during the show.
Eastern Michigan Upcoming Schedule

Monday, Nov. 4

- MBB vs. Marygrove (Exhib)
  Convocation Center
  7 p.m.

Tuesday, Nov. 5

- WBB vs Wayne State (Exhib)
  Convocation Center
  7 p.m.

Friday, Nov. 8

- MBB vs Albion
  Convocation Center
  Noon
- WBB vs Madonna
  Convocation Center
  2:30 p.m.
- WVB vs Western Michigan
  Convocation Center
  7 p.m.
- WSOC MAC Semifinals
  Scicluna Field
  TBA

Saturday, Nov. 9

- FB vs Western Michigan
  Rynearson Stadium
  1 p.m.
- MSWIM vs Oakland
  Jones Natatorium
  1 p.m.
- WSWIM vs Oakland
  Jones Natatorium
  1 p.m.
- WVB vs Northern Illinois
  Convocation Center
  7 p.m.
- WREST MSU Open
  East Lansing, Mich.
  All Day

Sunday, Nov. 11

- WSOC MAC Championships
  Scicluna Field
  1 p.m.

EMUEagles.com ###