Men's Basketball (5-1, 0-0 MAC)
Head Coach: Rob Murphy

- After starting the 2013-14 season 5-0, the Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team was handed its first loss at the hands of the No. 3/4-ranked University of Kentucky, 81-63, Wednesday, Nov. 27, at Rupp Arena. With the loss, the Eagles (5-1) fail to earn the right to call themselves the champions of the 2013 Kightley Classic, while the Wildcats (6-1) went 4-0 in the tournament, taking the title outright.
- The Green and White was led by junior college transfer Darell Combs who posted a career-best 23 points, along with a pair of rebounds, while Daylen Harrison tied his season-high of nine points in the loss. Glenn Bryant posted eight points off the bench, along with three rebounds and a trio of blocked shots as the Eagles shot 36.4 percent after going 24-for-66 from the floor and just 4-of-19 from three-point land which was good for 21.1 percent. EMU did manage to cause 20 Kentucky turnovers, while notching nine steals, including a pair from Daylen Harrison, Mo Hughley and Mike Talley each.
- Eastern returns back to Ypsilanti, Mich. Tuesday, Dec. 3, when it welcomes in the No. 24-ranked University of Massachusetts to the Convocation Center for a 7 p.m. contest. UMass comes into the game with a perfect 6-0 record. The Minutemen and Eastern Michigan have only met two times in the history of the two programs, with UMass winning both contests.
- After its first 5-0 start since the 1996-97 season, the Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team earned a spot in the CollegeInsider.com Men's Mid-Major Top 25 rankings for the first time in program history. Head Coach Rob Murphy's Eagles own the 25th spot CollegeInsider.com announced Monday, Nov. 25, as voted on by a 31-member panel of head coaches from different mid-major universities across the nation. It is the 15th season CollegeInsider.com has provided the nation with a mid-major top 25 ranking.
- Eastern Michigan is off to its best start since the 1996-97 campaign when it won six-straight to open the season. The Green and White can credit its hot start to a high-powered offense and stingy defense. EMU is averaging 79.2 points per game through its first five contests, while holding the opposition to just 59.4 points per game. A lot to do with the Eagles' defense is the fact that they post 10 blocks per contest, good for the third most in the NCAA Division I ranks.

Women's Basketball (4-0, 0-0 MAC)
Head Coach: Tory Verdi

- The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team shattered its single-game points record against Marygrove College, cruising to a 120-35 non-conference victory Saturday, Nov. 30, at the Convocation Center. Twelve different Eagles scored with seven players reaching double figures in points.
- The Green and White had a record-setting afternoon as it broke three EMU records and six Convocation Center records in the contest.
- Four Eagles had career days as Phillis Webb and Desyree Thomas fueled the EMU offense with 19 points apiece. Webb's 19 points and nine rebounds were each career-highs for the freshman, while Thomas' 19 points tied a career-best set against Western Michigan, March 9, 2013. The duo of Haley Moore and Jamaica Bucknor each reached double-digit points with career afternoons. Moore tied a career-best, draining five three-pointers and notching a career-high 17 points, while Bucknor had 10 points for EMU. KaBria Walker closed out the individual career days for the Eagles as the sophomore had three points and nabbed two defensive rebounds.
- Freshman Cha Sweeney notched her first career double-double as she had 13 points and pulled down a team-high 10 rebounds, while dishing out six assists. Olivia Fouty had 12 points and Janay Morton also had 10 for the Green and White.
- The Eagles will be back in action Wednesday, Dec. 4, when they travel to Chicago, Ill. to take on Loyola-Chicago in a non-conference contest. Tipoff is scheduled for 7 p.m. CT.
Baseball
Head Coach: Jay Alexander

Football (2-10, 1-7 MAC)
Interim Head Coach: Stan Parish
• Closing out the 2013 campaign, the Eastern Michigan University football team dropped a 42-10 decision to in-state rival Central Michigan University on a chilly Friday afternoon at Kelly/Shorts Stadium, Nov. 29. With the loss, the Eagles end their season at 2-10, including 1-7 in Mid-American Conference play.
• Bronson Hill led the EMU offense with 167 yards on 25 carries. He surpassed the 1,000-yard mark for the first time in his career while becoming the first EMU running back to rushed for over 1,000 yards in a season since Anthony Sherrell accomplished the feat during the 2003 season. Hill also passed the 2,000-yard plateau in his EMU career with an eight-yard run in the fourth quarter, the 11th running back in program history to reach that mark.
• Freshman Brogan Roback completed 14-of-27 passes for 139 yards. Roback's primary target all afternoon was Dustin Creel as the sophomore wide receiver made a career-high 10 catches for 109 yards.
• On the defensive side of the ball, Derric Williamsled the Eagles in tackles with a personal-best 10 for the freshman linebacker. Pudge Cotton also tallied 10 tackles to go along with a fumble recovery. Also, redshirt freshman Mike Steals hauled in his first career interception.
• The 2013 season finale marked the end of the careers of 14 Eagles: Tim Brown, Donald Coleman, Joe Fleming Kody Fulkerson, Ja’Ron Gillespie Javonti Greene, Kashama, Sean Kurtz, Cy Maughmer, Orlando McCord, Matt Price, Donald Scott, Shawn Sinawe and Mycal Swaim
